- Class size: Enrollment limited to a maximum of 20 participants.

Creative Themes Day Camp is again offering a special fly fishing camp. This is a unique, hands-on camp designed for the beginner or less experienced fly fisher. Enhance your fly fishing knowledge, improve your casting, identify aquatic insects/prey, understand tactics for various fisheries, learn new fly patterns, tie your own fly, determine what gear you need for fly fishing and compare notes with fellow anglers. Time will be spent casting and fishing for trout in either Irondequoit Creek, or for largemouth bass, sunfish and carp in the Pond.

Topics covered during this Fly Fishing Camp include:

- * Equipment needs versus equipment wants. Ways to get started in fly fishing without spending a fortune. Recommendations on popular gear for WNY fisheries.
- * Overview of fly rod design, materials, reels, lines and leaders and other useful fly fishing accessories.
- * Practical fishing knots and hands-on practice tying knots.
- * Basic casting instruction and tips to improve casting efficiency.
- * What various fish eat and how to imitate fish prey.
- * Fly types, fly selection and tying flies. You will be able to tie your own fly and fish it.
- * Ways to read water and how to approach a fishery.
- * Presentation tactics for various species of fish.
- * Recommendations for making the most of superb fishing opportunities in New York State.
- * Resources in Rochester that benefit the fly fisher.
- * Fly fishing ethics, conservation, releasing fish and stewardship of our water.
